ALLIANCE, ALL IN
MY STORY. YOUR STORY. OUR STORY.

ANNUAL REPORT 2022
DEAR FRIENDS,

It is a privilege to serve as Alliance’s newest CEO. Like most Alliance scholars, I grew up in a culturally vibrant yet underserved community on the eastside of Los Angeles. At that time, there were no Alliance schools in my neighborhood. And, at my local public school, few people expected much of me or my peers. Every message, direct and implicit, was clear and hurtful enough for me to know I deserved better. My parents knew I deserved better. Their resolve to find better options outside my neighborhood set me on a path to achieving my dreams that lands me here today.

I am so proud of everything the Alliance community has accomplished this past year. From returning to school in-person and tackling unfinished learning to ensuring our 26 campuses were safe and healthy places that fostered a sense of belonging and encouraged personal growth, it was a feat no one could have entirely imagined. Our scholars and families reminded us daily of their brilliance and resilience. It is from their strength that we knew we would be more than okay.

Despite the unparalleled challenges of the past several years, the Alliance Class of 2022 set a new bar for excellence. Nearly every senior graduated, with 96% accepted to college. A record-breaking 84% of graduates were accepted to four-year colleges, with 40% accepted to top-ranked institutions across the country.

As we look ahead and our scholars aspire to even greater heights, we are counting on you, our partners and supporters, to be All In with us. I believe, as I know you do, that all families should have a public school in their neighborhood as exceptional as an Alliance school.

Thank you for stepping forward, sharing your story and helping to propel our scholars to write their own.

With gratitude,

Catherine Suitor
Executive Director
Alliance College-Ready Public Schools Foundation

For 18 years, Alliance has continued to raise the bar of excellence for all public schools, daring to challenge the status quo, to do things differently and evolve through some of the toughest times.

Today, our success is deeper than graduation rates and academic success. Alliance schools serve as a beacon of what is possible, with a vision of young, college-ready scholars holding their diplomas high in the air with the conviction and ability to change the world we live in—to make it better for all of us.

Each one of us has a personal story, a journey, that brings us to Alliance. Maybe it was our own experience of being the first in our family to go to college, or facing the stigma and doubt from others who told us we were capable of only so much. Maybe we grew up witnessing educators in our families change lives. Maybe we come from a religious faith that calls us to serve others, or we simply hold a deep desire to bring to life a more fair, prosperous world where our own families have a sense of peace.

Whatever brings you here, we share a common desire for all young people to have access to a high quality education that gives them the confidence and tools to be the authors of their own lives—all of us could ever hope for ourselves and those we love.

Thank you for stepping forward, sharing your story and helping to propel our scholars to write their own.

With gratitude,

Catherine Suitor
Executive Director
Alliance College-Ready Public Schools Foundation

ALL IN ON MISSION

The Alliance Foundation raises resources and visibility for Alliance schools, advocates for policies that improve quality public education for historically underserved youth, and builds partnerships to strengthen Alliance schools and communities. We believe in the unlimited potential of our scholars and work to shine a bright light on what is possible for all public schools.

I dream, better yet I know, I will one day open a non-profit organization that aims to help those who come from the same world as me, and create a world that is better for them and everyone else—it will be a reflection of what I, and many others who look like me, were told we couldn’t do, which is to be successful.”

ALL IN ON RACIAL JUSTICE

CENTERING THE VOICES AND EXPERIENCES OF OUR SCHOLARS AND FAMILIES

Culturally Relevant Curriculum grounded in our scholars’ lived experience celebrates and honors the communities we serve, and fosters respect and understanding between the many diverse communities that make up our city, state, and nation.

CEO Advisory Committees of scholars, families, and alumni help guide Alliance’s overall strategic direction.

School Site Advisory Councils bring together scholars, parents, educators, and community members to guide school leaders and inform decisions of critical importance to school communities.

Parent Leadership & Ambassador Programs provide parents with resources, training, and tools to become effective advocates for their scholars and communities.

Alliance recognizes our importance as parents. The teachers, staff, the whole team, even IT and our school’s principal, have all been partners in my son’s education. I want our children to become contributing citizens, and to know that we as a community can provide options.

Rochelle Lakey, Parent, Alliance Virgil Roberts Leadership Academy

COMMITMENT TO EQUITY

Alliance was founded to address institutional and racial inequities in public education. Youth in marginalized communities are brilliant and capable—they just need the investment and support to realize their promise. They deserve the opportunity to author their own stories and excel beyond the imaginable. We reaffirm our commitment to become an anti-racist, pro-Black public school network that includes:

Leader Development that builds Alliance leaders’ capacity to understand, engage, and guide their teams in creating more equitable and inclusive practices at schools and across the network.

Restorative Discipline that heals individuals, repairs communities, and eliminates disparate disciplinary practices.

Increasing Black Scholar Belonging and Enrollment with targeted programming that honors and celebrates our Black scholars and families.
INVESTING IN OUR FUTURE

Alliance’s creativity, flexibility, and willingness to push the boundaries of possibility make us uniquely positioned to answer the call of this pivotal time for public education. We are:
- Expanding learning opportunities with technology
- Piloting flexible work weeks that enhance educators’ planning and preparation to strengthen the quality and impact of instruction for scholars
- Growing a new pipeline of future educators from among the ranks of Alliance Alumni

The future of Alliance scholars rests on the quality and commitment of the adults who support them. We believe in the power of our people so much that:
- Alliance educators are the highest paid in Los Angeles County
- New teachers and staff receive extensive training and one-to-one mentoring and support
- Alliance has invested in increased coaching and professional development for educators
- Alliance educators participate actively in shaping the direction of their schools and their profession

The teachers at Alliance invested a lot of their time and energy in building relationships with students. It felt like a whole community was trying to help me get to college, to help me feel like I belonged, and it made a huge difference in my life.”

Josephine Pineda, Assistant Principal, Alliance Marine-Innovation and Technology 6-12 Complex | Alliance Gertz-Ressler High School Alumna, Class of 2008 | UCLA, Class of 2012

I feel like I’m valued. I want to stay and grow within Alliance because they care. They want us to be able to have a life that is sustainable.”
